NOTES TO APPLICANTS FOR THE BSI CONGRESS 2022 TRAVEL AWARDS

Application criteria

- Current paid-up members who have held membership for a minimum period of one year (two consecutive membership subscription payments)
- Grants cannot be awarded retrospectively.
- Applicants must register for the Congress before the grant is issued.

Terms and conditions

- You will be required to acknowledge the Society for their financial support on your poster and or oral presentation as well as displaying the Society's logo (if applicable). Please email membership@immunology.org for this.
- Successful recipients are required to submit the following within one month after the meeting: receipts for travel, event registration, accommodation etc. up to award received.
- The grant awarded will be up to a maximum of £250 per applicant
- An applicant may only be awarded one BSI Conference Bursary within each 12-month period. This does not affect your ability to apply for any other BSI grant schemes including the BSI Conference Travel Grant and BSI Regional & Affinity Conference Grants.
- This grant scheme involves funding travel and we expect recipients to adhere all relevant coronavirus guidance both from the UK and/or devolved nations as applicable.
- Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

Please note that failure to comply with the terms and conditions may result in a voided application and all monies to be refunded to the Society and/or the rejection of future applications

Although the BSI endeavours to award as many travel awards to members as possible, the high level of demand will result in some applications not being successful.

Please make sure you use the latest version of the Congress travel awards application form, as it is subject to periodic updates.
