

BSI Teaching Excellence Award Nomination Form

The BSI are once again running their Immunology Teaching Excellence Award, aimed at highlighting the outstanding teachers of immunology working in UK higher education.

This form should be completed by individuals wishing to nominate themselves, a colleague or a teacher they believe to be deserving of the award.

Following this nomination period an expert panel of judges will be assembled to review and score each nomination. From these discussions, a winner will be awarded.

If you are nominating someone other than yourself, the BSI will contact the nominee within 30 days of the nomination being received to obtain consent from them to hold their personal information. If we do not receive consent from the nominee within this 30-day period, we will be unable to hold their personal information and we will not be able to process the application further.

If you are self-nominating, by submitting an application you give us consent to hold the personal information provided in the form below in relation to processing your nomination for the Immunology Teaching Excellence Award.

All personal data will be held in accordance with our privacy policy and data protection policy.

Please send the completed nomination form via email to Eolan Healy, e.healy@immunology.org
